ATMØVAC™

KAZE14

The Atmovac KAZE 14 chamber vacuum sealer combines advanced vacuum packaging technology with user-friendly operation to deliver consistent results for commercial kitchens, butcher shops, food processors, and sous vide applications. Designed to extend product shelf life, reduce food waste, and preserve product quality, this commercial chamber vacuum sealer provides reliable performance for everyday vacuum packaging needs.

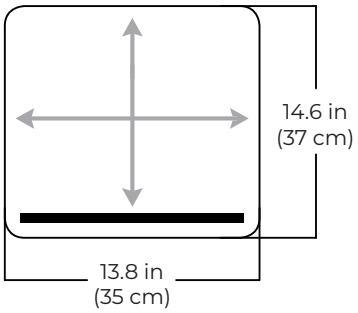

FEATURES

- Sensor-controlled vacuum technology ensures accurate and repeatable vacuum levels for consistent packaging results.
- Liquid Control system automatically detects boiling points to prevent moisture loss while protecting products and machine components.
- Three-program memory allows operators to save frequently used settings for faster and more efficient operation.
- Double-seal technology enhances package integrity for improved food preservation and long-term storage.
